PET TIP!

After a day at the Beach: Rinse well
Whether you've been hanging out in salt or fresh water, be sure you rinse off your dog's coat to rid them of any sand, salt, and beach germs before you head home. Not only will this protect your car from a major mess, but it also prevents skin irritation caused by the sand and salt. If your dog's skin is especially sensitive, these two offenders can cause serious itching.
