PET TIP!

Take Care to Regularly Moisturize Your Pet's Dry Winter Skin : Just like us humans, dogs and cats can get dry skin in the winter time, especially when cooped up indoors as the temperatures drop. Luckily, caring for dry skin is pretty easy maintenance. While you don't need to bathe your pet very often, using a calming oatmeal shampoo when you do can help ease the itch. And easiest of all, use a humidifier throughout your home to increase humidity in the air (your own skin will thank you, too!).
